PROFILE

A skilled Full stack Mern developer proficient in JavaScript, React.js, and TypeScript, I contribute to building engaging user interfaces. While my backend knowledge is growing, I have a solid understanding of Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB, enabling me to work on full-stack projects. Additionally, my familiarity with Java and PHP, coupled with SQL proficiency, provides a versatile skill set. My commitment to continuous learning and attention to detail drive me to develop efficient, modular solutions that support organizational objectives and enhance functional success.
